WAS A RIFT IN THE CLOUDS

Happy Moments in a Soldier's

THE PRESENTATION OF THE FLAG

Miss Peyton's Letter and Captain Gray's Letter of Acceptance—An Inspiration to The Boys.

Camp at Lands End, S. C. Aug. 22
Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir—Under the leadership of the fairest of the fair ladies of your progressive city, a beautiful silken flag has been made and presented to the brave boys who left their homes and went to the war with the Greensboro company. It was my good fortune to witness the presentation of this flag, and after reading so many accounts of battle, disease and hardship undergone by our soldiers in the war, it may be pleasant for your subscribers to read of one of the rays of sunshine which sometimes rift the cloud of a soldier's life.

A pleasant ride by boat from Port Royal sound, the finest harbor on the Atlantic coast, past the naval station with its mammoth dry dock and machine shops, past the quarantine station nestling in a grove of beautiful Palmettos, where are encamped the South Carolina naval reserves, past the monitor Nantuxet manned by the Wilmington naval reserves, past the torpedo boat Winslow on which the gallant Bagley died and other war vessels had brought me to St. Helena's Island.

This is one of the far famed sea islands of South Carolina and appears to the approaching visitors as a strip of golden sand surrounded by a wealth of rich green verdure, above which at frequent intervals rises that most graceful and picturesque of all trees, the Palmetto. The troops were drawn up for their regular Saturday afternoon inspection, each man in his brightest and newest uniform and there was a generous crowd of onlookers. Soldiers from the engineers and hospital corps on the island, marines from the naval station, sailors from the war ships in the harbor, citizens from the neighboring towns of Beaufort and Port Royal, the whole surrounded by a black fringe of natives of the island made a motley and picturesque group indeed.

The flag was brought forward and appropriately presented, Captain Gray reading the letter of presentation from the Girls Home Guards and the letter of acceptance as follows:

Capt. R. P. Gray, Co. D, 2d Regt., N. C. V.:

The Girls Home Guard of Greensboro, appreciating the patriotism and state pride which impelled the officers and men of your company to voluntarily undergo the hardships, privations and dangers of soldier life, present this flag to your company. We feel sure that it will be "defended with honor" and that Co. D, by its behavior, under whatever circumstances and environment it may be called to act, will reflect honor upon the "Old North State" and upon the donors.

Charlotte A. Peyton,
Treasurer.

Aug. 12, '98.

Lands End, S. C., Aug. 20, '98.

To the Girls Home Guards of Greensboro, N. C.:

Company D, Second North Carolina Volunteer Infantry, accepts the beautiful silken banner presented by the Girls Home Guard of Greensboro, and in accepting this beautiful token of sympathy we assure the lovely donors and our fellow townsmen generally, that we do so with a full appreciation of the faith and trust they repose in us. The glorious record of the North Carolina soldier, his courage and sense of duty, his faithfulness to every trust, is unexcelled in the history of the world. We know what is expected of North Carolina soldiers and we shall do our duty, whether it be to meet the enemy on some foreign soil or to remain at home for the defense of our own fair land. Your sympathy, fair ladies, is an inspiration for us. We will gallantly defend your flag, and will always carry in our hearts the tenderest feeling for the Girls Home Guard.

On behalf of each and every member of the company I am very respectfully and gratefully yours,

R. Percy Gray,
Capt. Sec. N. C. V. I. Commanding.

The soft sea breeze caught its silken folds and spread the gorgeous flag in all its beauty to the gaze of the assembly, then there burst forth from those lusty throats cheer after cheer, ending with three cheers and a tiger for the Girls Home Guard.

The parade was dismissed just at sunset amid the booming of cannon and the soul-stirring strains of martial music by the garrison band and your correspondent left the field thinking that there are sometimes, after all, happy moments in a soldier's life, which lessen its hardships and privations.

CAPT. BESSENT GOES HOME.

He is Off on a Ten Days Furlough.
He is Looking Well.

Jolly, jovial Capt. J. C. Besent, of the Forsyth Riflemen, spent last night in the city and went to his home in Winston this morning to visit his family. He is off on a ten days furlough. Capt. Besent called to see "the boys" in the Telegram office this morning. He is looking splendid and gives a good account of the members of his company. In fact the whole of the First regiment has enjoyed remarkably good health.

There have been but three deaths in the First regiment since it was mustered in. They were Barboe, of Durham, who was killed by the train while enroute to Florida; Corporal Adams, who died from an operation for appendicitis, and another member died of typhoid fever. This is a remarkably good record.

Captain Besent thinks the first regiment will go to Cuba as a part of the army of occupation, probably sometime in October.

REV. DR. BYRD ILL.

Condition Was Critical, but is Improved Today.

When Rev. Dr. Charles W. Byrd, pastor of Central M. E. church, south, called at the Citizen office yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock he was the picture of health and apparently perfectly well, except that he complained of trouble with his eyesight. He spent some time in the office and later went for a call on Rev. E. L. Bain at the parsonage of the North Asheville church.

While there Dr. Byrd was suddenly seized with an attack of congestion of the brain, his condition being such as to greatly alarm those who were with him. Drs. Carl V. Reynolds and G. W. Purefoy were hastily summoned and gave all possible aid to the stricken man.

For several hours Dr. Byrd's condition was exceedingly critical, but finally he began to show signs of improvement, and today he was a great deal better. It was expected that he would be so far improved as to be removed to his home this afternoon.

The members of his congregation and the people of Asheville generally will hope for Dr. Byrd's speedy and complete recovery. — Asheville Citizen.

"I guess not."

"He's too old to travel free. He occupies a whole seat, and the car's crowded. There are people standing up."

"That's all right."

"I haven't time to argue the matter, ma'am. You'll have to pay for that boy."

"I've never paid for him yet, and I'm not going to begin to do it now."

"You've got to begin doing it some time. If you haven't had to put up any fare for him you're mighty lucky, or else you don't do much traveling."

"That's all right."

"You'll pay for that boy, ma'am, or I'll stop the train and put him off."

"That's all right. You put him off if you think that's the way to get anything out of me."

"You ought to know what the rules of this road are, madam. How old is that boy?"

"I don't know. I never saw him before. If you want a ticket for him you'd better ask that old gentleman down the aisle. He got on with him."

IRON AND STEEL COMBINE

Capital of Two Hundred Million Dollars.

FIVE COMPANIES CONSOLIDATED

Others Are Expected to Follow—Believed the Pennsylvania Companies Will Not Go In.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Chicago, August 24—It is predicted that a big consolidation of iron and steel companies is to be effected. The property of five companies is already in and there are others to follow. The terms agreed upon are now being put in legal form.

The new combination will include the Minnesota Iron company, with its Duluth Iron Range railroad, the Minnesota Steamship line, the Illinois Steel company with the Chicago, Lake Shore and Western railway, the Southwestern Conellville-Coke company, the Elgin Joliet Eastern railroad, the Lorain Steel company and the Johnson Steel company.

It is believed that the Pennsylvania companies are disposed to keep out of the deal.

The capital of this combination is estimated at two hundred million dollars.

Harry Nissen, of Winston and J. K. Pfohl, of Salem, were registered at Jarrell's Hotel last night.

A part of the Telegram's telegraphic news in some way found its way from the Western Union telegraph office to the Daily Record office yesterday and was printed in that paper.

A clean man, when he begins to shovel dirt, will become dirty, and it will be necessary for democrats who take an active part in the present campaign to take frequent baths.

Those who believe populists leaders are sincere are invited to read the article in this paper on the evolution of Col. Harry Skinner. His utterances in 1892 were strong and patriotic; they had the ring of true metal. He reiterated these utterances, time after time, and said he wanted to be fully understood. Contrast his words then and his acts since and draw your own conclusions.

There are forty negro magistrates in New Hanover county. The white people of this section of North Carolina are asked to take that statement up and look at it, and think about it. How would you like for this to be said of Guilford county? White republican friend, tell us, candidly and honestly, how would you relish the spectacle? Don't you believe it would cause a retching in your stomach?

As an evidence of the fact that the scrap with the Dons and the political heat which is rising have not stopped the interest in the matter of good roads, we note the fact that in the Guilford county convention last Saturday in placing in nomination a gentleman for county commissioner a farmer from the east, named his man, because, as he said, he wanted the roads in that section of the county worked. That is the cry, and it comes from every progressive man in Guilford county.

The color line! Oh, dreadful color line! Republicans talk a great deal privately about democrats drawing the color line. The negroes drew it themselves when they solidly arrayed themselves against white government thirty years ago and have stayed there ever since. The negro editor in Wilmington has made it dangerous for white people to cross it by placing poisoned barbs thereon. We challenge any republican paper or any individual republican in this part of North Carolina to go before the people and endorse and uphold the government which has been placed on the face of a white man who could unblushingly stand up before his kindred color and say he fully endorsed the state of things in the east. Yet they should do so or else join the great majority of white people who are in favor of restoring to those people respectable government.

THE EVOLUTION OF SKINNER.

Example of the Populist Leaders' Sincerity.

On the 16th day of August, 1892, the first state convention of the populist party ever held in North Carolina commenced in Raleigh. The men who left the democratic party proclaimed that the state administration was clean, honest and capable, but that they had been forced to organize the new party to secure financial legislation through national legislation. Colonel Harry Skinner was nominated for governor, and when he was called to the platform to accept the nomination, he said:

"I know I have taken a part in educating and trying to get you to think upon economic lines as I do. And I have thought, and my earnest conviction was that the best way to accomplish this was through the organization of the democratic party. I made the fight upon the same, and I made the issue that the democratic party was the people's party, and that under its wing of patriotism was the place for the great mass of the people instead of being bound by chains of gold to Wall street."

"But, my friends, I want to make a plain statement. I am in the battle for financial reform through wealth. (Applause.) I do not want any office. I want to make the fight without having to be charged with the aspersion of aspiration; and before I accept this nomination it must be upon known and well-defined terms. And what are those terms? They are these: That if at any hour there appears such a division wrought among the white people of this country that the republican machine, the common enemy of us all and our country, and the cause of all our evils, has and is surreptitiously taking advantage of our division and white supremacy is endangered, I want to advise you of it. I shall be a patriot to North Carolina and advise you of the dangers in which you are. And unless you give me that power, unless you are willing to entrust me with that confidence, unless you are willing of yourselves, while fighting nationally the battles of reform, in the case of North Carolina, you see that your people are divided and the republicans have the advantage of you and are going to elect their ticket, if I cannot tell you, then, gentlemen, I cannot be your candidate for governor, but with this position, taking the banner of financial reform in my hand, making that the chief tenor of my argument wherever I stand, only under this condition will I accept, and I do not want this unless it is done in acquiescence and perfect order."

This qualified acceptance caused a great deal of dissatisfaction in the convention and many wished Mr. Skinner to explain himself more fully. He was therefore recalled, when he said: "I understand that some misconception of a certain statement of mine has occurred. As I told you, I do not want any mistake about it. There is another sense of patriotic duty; it is to preserve home government to the people of North Carolina. Now, there is no financial reform in the state offices. While it is necessary to organize for great battles and form great parties for great work, yet I state this and nothing more: If it became apparent that the republicans were trying to take advantage of our division, that as a patriotic son of North Carolina I ought to be able to tell you so. I do not mean, my countrymen, that I shall notice a republican ticket hired by the democratic party. I do mean an opposition from the republican party, which is a big enemy to financial reform. I mean to say that if the clouds become so close and dark for us, and it is apparent to every sensible man that in the division among the white people and the republicans are in earnest I ought to tell you so. While I will go to the front with Mr. Weaver and financial reform and support every district for financial reform, yet I do not believe I ought to act in such a way as to turn your government over to the republicans. But I want to be just to the banner. If I accept the position, of course your Executive Committee will have me under their control." (Voice from the crowd, "Would you turn it over to the democratic party?") No, sir; I would vote for Mr. Weaver." (A voice, How about the state government?) Skinner (hesitatingly,) "I want this thing understood: If the contest is between Mr. Eaves and Mr. Carr, I would vote for Mr. Carr." These words seemed to deepen the dissatisfaction that had already been so plainly shown by Mr. Skinner's auditors. He was again recalled and said:

"It seems that I create some trouble every time I speak. I know it is not my purpose to create trouble. "I had the courage of my convictions and stand for financial reform. I have the courage now to stand and say what may be possible danger which will enter our State matters. I expect to support Weaver and Field; to advocate financial reform; to never swerve in my energy to accomplish the revolution that must come. I will support your Congressional nominee; I will support your ticket as long as it is in the field, but my friends I want to say to you that I am not going to allow my name any longer to be an innumeration or embarrassment to you. I will support the ticket you nominate here."

Mr. Butler announced that Mr. Skinner had withdrawn his name, but that if he was placed at the head of the state ticket he would fight there as long as the executive committee said so. Col. T. B. Long, republican, who had seconded Mr. Skinner's nomination, declared the convention had made a grand mistake and said he wanted to withdraw his second.

That was in 1892. Col. Skinner's speech on that occasion voiced what ought to be the sentiment of every white man in the state. Unfortunately for him the bait of a $5,000 job was dangled before his vision, he fell from his high estate, pandered to the negro vote, betrayed his principles and became the ally of the goldbugs, trusts, corporations, negroes, radicals—all everything he then said he would not do.

Now what do we see? The home town of Col. Harry Skinner is in the hands of negroes, there are several hundred negro magistrates in the state, a negro controls the white deaf and dumb school, negro troops make themselves offensive on trains, the state government is a disgrace to civilization, a white judge apologizes for the crime of rape, the white women in the country are afraid to go away from home without protection and all the evils have come upon the state which Col. Skinner predicted would follow radical rule.

What is the attitude now? Within the last week he has been crowned king of the populist party upon his platform of advocating fusion with the republicans and sending a goldbug to the United States senate. Those populist office holders, who had been supposed to be against the elevation of the negro and the gold standard, have gotten on their knees to Col. Harry, and said, "Lead us, or we lose our salaries." And Col. Harry Skinner has heeded their call upon two conditions:

First. That the whole party will follow him in fusing with the negroes and the goldbugs.
Second. That his course in bolting the party and advocating goldbug Pritchard for the senate be approved, at least tacitly.—News and Observer.

Mr. John Mathias, a well known stock dealer of Pulaski, Ky., says: "After suffering for over a week with flux, and my physician having failed to relieve me, I was advised to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have the pleasure of stating that the half of one bottle cured me." For sale by C. E. Holton.

The furniture of the battleships Kentucky and Kearsarge, orders for the making of which have just been received at the Portsmouth navy yard, is to cost nearly one hundred thousand dollars.

The Rev. W. B. Costley, of Stockbridge, Ga., while attending to his pastoral duties at Ellenwood, that state, was attacked by cholera morbus. He says: "By chance I happened to get hold of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and I think it was the means of saving my life. It relieved me at once." For sale by C. E. Holton.

Pittsburg commandery, No. 1, K. T., proposes to spend $60,000 in entertaining the delegates to the six days national convocation of the order to be held in that city next October. ### Col Hamilton Jones

Says:
Charlotte, N. C., April 5, 1895.
Mrs. Jos. Person,
Madam—Last year I was afflicted with some skin trouble affecting my feet, pronounced by my physician to be erythema. I was confined to my room for some two months, and was lame for some six months or more.
After trying many remedies without effecting a cure, I resorted to your remedy. After using three bottles I began to improve and before I had finished the fifth or sixth bottle was practically free of the trouble. Once since then there recurred symptoms of its return, when I again resorted to your remedy and again the trouble disappeared. I believe I am indebted to you for relief from a very serious affliction.
Yours truly,
HAMILTON C. JONES.

SPAIN, FRANCE AND RUSSIA.

Treaty of Alliance Said to Have Been Signed Between Them.
London, Aug. 24.—The Madrid correspondent of The Times says: One paper here declares boldly, on the authority of an anonymous French dip-lomast, that owing to M. Hanotaux's exertions, a treaty of alliance has been signed between Spain, France and Russia, with the object of counteracting the Anglo-German influence in Morocco. Other papers mention the matter, but without affirming that the treaty has been actually signed.
The idea of a permanent rapprochment between France and Spain is certainly in the air, and may in time assume considerable practical importance. It had its origin in France's role in the peace negotiations and reports of friction with England over Spain's military activity in the neighborhood of Gibraltar.

In Memoriam of Henry Woods.

The following resolutions have been adopted by the Eliphe Fire Co.: Whereas, The great Supreme Ruler of the universe has, in his infinite way, removed from among us our esteemed brother, Henry Woods, and Whereas, The long and intimate relations held with him in the faithful discharge of his duties in this company make it eminently befitting that we should accord our appreciation of him.
Therefore, be it
Resolved, That the wisdom and abilities which he exercised in the aid of our organization given us by him be held in grateful remembrance.
Resolved, That the sudden removal of such a brother from among us leaves a vacancy and a shadow deeply realized by all the members and friends of the company.
Resolved, That with deep sympathy for the relatives of the deceased we express our hope that even so great a loss to us all may be overruled for good by Him who doeth all things well.
Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of this company, a copy sent to the daily papers for publication, and a copy forwarded to the bereaved family.

He had tested cocktails in a dozen places along Park row, and was in a cheerful condition when he bumped against a big policeman near the bridge. The policeman knew the man was a rough rider and apologized for being in the soldier's way.

"Yer better get out—the way!"
shouted the soldier. "I can do as I —darn pl—hic—please in this yere town. D'yer hear!"
"I hear," said the cop; you're all right."
"Betcher sweet life I am—hic—hic—right. This—is war celebration day, an' I kin lick all 'er cops in Ne' York, an' they dassent arrest me.
There see? I can push you off 'n your feet if I like an' you can't rest me on celebration day."

As he was saying this the soldier pushed the policeman up against an iron railing. A crowd gathered and cheered the rough rider. The policeman dodged through the crowd to get away.
"Yer better run," said the soldier;
"yer had to run, an' I kin do as d—pl—hic—please. I'm a—goin' to stan' on my head if I—waster; see? No cop kin arrest a rou—rough rider in this town, kin they, boys, hey?"
"No!" shouted the crowd in chorus;
"not on your kippie!"
Then the rough rider bowed to the crowd and went on his way in search of another cop.—N. Y. Sun.

When the members of the Hawaiian commission sailed from San Francisco they found that the vessel upon which they had taken passage carried two hundred tons of onions on her deck.
Senator Cullom, not being overfond of onions, was highly indignant at this. "The next time this company comes before congress," said he, "I shall take opportunity to pay my respects to it on the floor of the Senate."

About one month ago my child which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave it such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief we sent for a physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty-five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live.
Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended, and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better; by its continued use a complete cure was brought about and it is now perfectly healthy.—C. L.
Boggs, Stumptown, Gilmer Co., W.
Va. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Lieutenant Mulligan, of the flagship New York, was a happy man when that vessel arrived in the harbor of the metropolis Saturday. "This morning I had an egg for breakfast," said he, after explaining that he hadn't been ashore for many months. "It was the first I have eaten since I left Key West.
We got some eggs at Santiago from a schooner from Jamaica, but they cost 75 cents a dozen, and I would not eat one for $25."

Did You Ever
Try Electric Bitters as a remedy for your troubles? If not, get a bottle now and get relief. This medicine has been found to be peculiarly adapted to the relief and cure of all female complaints, exerting a wonderful direct influence in giving strength and tone to the organs. If you have loss of appetite, constipation, headache, fainting spells,
or are nervous, sleepless, excitable, melancholy or troubled with dizzy spells, Electric Bitters is the medicine you need. Health and strength are guaranteed by its use.—Fifty cents and $1.00 at C. E. Holton's drug store.

The Kansas City Journal asserts that the populist of Kansas measure even the commonest circumstances of life through their political significance.
It is a general rule, says the Journal, they cast a quick look at the coffin in the hearse and then commence to figure on the politics of the hearse drivers.
One of the state officials changed his boarding house because the widow who runs it once had a husband who voted council appointed a committee to see if the man who sold ginger pop on the state house grounds was a true reformer.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Note the change of ad of John B.
Fariss, on first page.

Howard Gardner advertises Wood's lawn grass seed, fresh.

S. A. Howard returned yesterday from a visit to Bedford City, Va.

If you have a vacant lot close by it will pay you to read Wharton & Mc-Allister's ad.

The faces of the town clock are being repainted. Its "hands" might be washed also.

A set of hobby horses are being placed in the lot in front of Vuncan-on's store, on South Elm street.

C. M. Vanstory & Co., announce in their ad today that the famous Knox hats, in fall styles, are now on exhibition.

John Boyer, ex-sheriff of Forsyth county, was in the city today representing the Southern Chemical Works of Winston.

The bridge force is pushing work on the iron bridge across East Market street. It will be completed in a few more days.

That wagon load of young people who were singing "Good-bye, my Love, Good Bye," on the way home from the camp meeting last night were evidently not very deeply impressed with the meeting, and were not in the least concerned about the salvation of souls.

The excursion advertised by Mr.
West for Wilmington about September 7th will have to be postponed. The date will be announced later. The Southern wired Mr. West this morning that on account of the heavy contracts for moving troops the train cannot be furnished at that time.

There was a large attendance at Muir's Chapel last night. Rev. A. W.
Plyler, preached an earnest sermon, after which short exhortations were made by Revs. Troy and Barber.
Much interest was apparent and there seemed to be a determination on the part of the ministers and workers to carry on the meeting until a great revival is had.

Court Proceedings.

Court has been moving rather slowly today, several cases having been continued, though yesterday and Monday Judge Timberlake rushed things along in a hurry. The cases disposed of up to noon today are as follows:

State vs Jas. Copening, Jas. Erwin, and Sam Gorrell, assault. Guilty; judgment suspended on payment of
costs.

State vs Jas. Copening, c. c. w.
Guilty; judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State vs Samuel Teague and Andrew Reeves, gambling. Plead guilty;
judgment suspended on payment of
costs.

State vs Jerry A. Terry, trespass.
Guilty; judgment, six months on county roads and payment of costs.

State vs. Jerry A. Terry, assault with deadly weapon. Guilty; judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State vs. Riley Matthews, gambling.
Plead guilty; judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State vs F. M. Keith, embezzlement.
Not guilty.

Single Handicap in Tennis.

The tennis players have made arrangements to hold a single handicap in that game to decide the championship of the city. Anyone wishing to enter in the contest may do so by applying to Wharton Brothers bookstore. There are already eighteen entries and the first game will be played either this afternoon or tomorrow. More interest is manifested in tennis now than ever before and large crowds are expected to witness the games in the coming contest.

Johnny Got His Gun.

About six weeks ago the captain of a company, which passed here about that time, dropped a rifle from the train about three miles north of the city. It was picked up by a country gentleman the next day but he knew no way to find the owner. However, he received a letter a few days ago from the captain, who is in camp at St.
Augustine, Fla., asking him to send the gun and he would pay him for all his trouble. The gun was sent by express last night.

Week End Rates to Carolina Beach.

Commencing August 18th and continuing to Sunday, September 25th inclusive the Southern railway company will sell tickets to Carolina Beach, N.
C., and return at rate of $4.80. For sale on all regular trains leaving Greensboro Saturday and limit of ticket to return on Tuesday following date of sale. J. B. Graham, Ticket Agent.

Mayor's Judgment Reversed.

Some time ago a man by the name of Moose was indicted for exhibiting a photograph on the streets of High Point without having a license. W. P.
Ragan represented the defendant in the mayor's court and contended that he was not guilty under the city charter, because it was not expressly incorporated in the ordinance. The court adjudged defendant guilty, whereupon he appealed to the superior court and yesterday afternoon His Honor, Judge Timberlake, held that he was not guilty and he was discharged.
